

Criteria to apply for the Young Champions' Summit

Preamble

The Applications from PLANETE PAIX's Representations that have the capacity to raise funds and get logistic resources to host The 2019 Young Champions' Summit will be received by the NGO PLANETE PAIX from November 19, 2018 to December 19, 2018.

This document is designed to provide guidance on how to apply. The application should be based on relevance and compliance criteria. Therefore, interested applicants are advised to refer to this document which outlines the criteria and process for selecting the host country of the 2019 Youth Champions Summit.

NB: This guide is meant to be complete. However, for any further information, send an email to info@planetepaix.org or contact (+225) 48 138 304. You will also find links giving you an overview of the Young Champions Summit.

Selection criteria of the host country

A committee is set up to evaluate applications and recommend the top three applications to the NGO office that will make the final choice. This nomination committee is composed of three members of the NGO PLANETE PAIX and is chaired by a member of the NGO duly mandated for this purpose. The final selection of the host country for the 2019 Youth Champions Summit will be announced by 1 January 2019.

The selection criteria will be respected for the evaluation of proposals, even if only one country is a candidate, in order to ensure that the place and the host organization (s) is (are) able to provide the necessary conditions to host the summit.

➤ Applications must be submitted in writing in the form of a file.

Application file:

- The application must be carried forward by PLANETE PAIX's representative of the country. The latter will sign the application letter that will accompany the application,
- In the application file, it will be necessary to:
